Heaven is Real - Don Piper 2007

Now, from "The Minister of Hope" comes the follow-up that readers have been waiting for. On January 18th, 1989, Don Piper died in a car accident. Ninety minutes later, after a preacher prayed over him, Piper came back to life with an extraordinary story. He'd been to heaven. So began the phenomenon of 90 Minutes in Heaven. Now, for the millions who look to him for inspiration, Piper offers the hope that if he could survive his ordeal after the accident, then others can survive whatever life circumstances they're going through and grow in God's love through the experience. For Piper, heaven is a certainty--and so is God's grace. Relying on that assurance, believers can transform pain into purpose and troubles into blessings, finding joy in life even when life turns out not to be what they expected.--From publisher description.

Piper recounts the majesty of heaven and the glorious reunion that awaits us there. He offers practical insights, inspiration, and a challenging call that while we're on earth we need to obey Jesus' command to "go and make disciples of all nations."

Reflections on 90-Minutes in Heaven - Angela Shears 2009-10-28

With 1.4 million copies in print and as a NewYork Times and USAToday bestseller, 90 Minutes in Heaven by Don Piper has made a difference in how many people view life and Heaven. As the third book in The Powder Room series, Reflections From the Powder Room on 90 Minutes in Heaven exposes real-life-serious and not-so-serious discussion about life, death, and everything in between. Readers will enjoy journeying along with four women whose beliefs, ideas, and experiences are as different as the lipstick they wear and the lives they lead. Realizing that discussions about the afterlife, eternity, immortality, and the hereafter have for centuries sparked intellectual deliberations, religious arguments, and personal introspection, they tackle these topics with all the finesse their stilettos (and pink bunny slippers) will allow. There is no doubt these wikipowderroom-type cliff notes about 90 Minutes in Heaven will create conversation in book clubs, classrooms, and kitchens as readers question their views about life and death, as well as Heaven and hell.

Heavenly Company - Cecil Murphey 2012

Expertly compiled by bestselling author Cecil Murphey, contained within this powerful book are the stories of individuals who have encountered angels, seen and unseen. An urgent need. A moment of desperation. In this collection of real-life stories from encounters with God's angels and mysterious, helpful strangers, Cecil Murphey and his co-writer, Twila Belk, masterfully bring together stories from all over the world that share one thing in common: the way in which God uses his messengers to touch our lives. From Ellen Cardwell's story of a highway angel who helped her and her husband continue their trip after car trouble on California's desolate Highway 1, to Delores Topliff's story of her childhood, where, on the brink of starvation, an angel on a bicycle drops off bags of groceries, these stories will challenge and reward our faith in God. The God who tells us to entertain strangers, and possibly, heavenly company.

Please note: This is a companion version & not the original book. Sample Book Insights: #1 The Baptist General Convention of Texas held a statewide conference in 1989, and I went to learn about new church development. I had begun thinking that it was time for me to start a new congregation, and I wanted to know the hardships as well as the pitfalls to avoid. #2 I was driving to Houston to preach at a church, when I was hit head-on by an eighteen-wheeler. I was thrown from the car and landed on the bridge above the Trinity River. The truck driver didn't see me, and my car was smashed. #3 I was killed in an accident when I was driving home from work. The truck that hit me was going at least sixty miles an hour, and I was carefully cruising at fifty. The inmate received a citation for failure to control his vehicle and speeding.

A Walk Through the Dark - Eva Piper 2013-08-06

One day Eva Piper was an elementary school teacher, the mother of three, the beloved wife of a strong, protective husband. The next day she stood at the bedside of a broken man who could do nothing but moan in agony and turn his head away from her. Later she would learn that he had died and actually experienced heaven before being prayed back to life—a true miracle. Don Piper's testimony, told in the New York Times bestseller 90 Minutes in Heaven, would one day bring hope to thousands. But all that was in the future. Despite family and friends who kept vigil with her, Eva Piper found herself essentially alone. Walking in the dark. And she had always hated the dark. Though it parallels that of her husband, Eva Piper's account is quite different from his. It takes readers not to heavenly places but through a very earthly maze of hospital corridors, insurance forms, tiring commutes from home to workplace and hospital, and lonely hours of waiting and worrying. This is the story of a woman learning, step by darkened step, to go places she never thought she could go and growing into a person she never thought she could be. Packed with hard-earned wisdom about what it means to be a caregiver, to open yourself to the care of others, and to rest in God's provision, this book provides a dependable source of light to help you walk through the dark.
