Cheyenne Madonna - Eddie D. Chuculate 2010

One stormy night in 1826, Old Bull, a Cheyenne Indian who had just seen the ocean for the first time, found himself trying to outrace a hurricane. Old Bull was the only one of his party to return, arriving home nearly naked, nearly hallucinating, riding a horse. Such is the beginning to the life of Jordan Coolwater, a distant relation to Old Bull, whom we meet as a boy in the 1970s, shooting turtles on a summer day, and being raised by his grandparents in the house of his great-great-grandfather, a survivor of the "Trail of Tears." Bearing the burden of his ancestry, Jordan Coolwater - from bored young boy, to thoughtful teenager, struggling artist, escaped convict, and finally, father - is the subject of Eddie Chuculate's collection of linked short stories. This is not only a portrait of a young Native American artist struggling with the two constants in his life, alcohol and art, but also a portrait of America, of its dispossessed, its outlaws, and its visionaries.

A little book of profitable tales - Eugene Field 1896

More Brown County Stories - George Monroe 2006-12-21

The purpose of this book is to share some of the fun and interesting things that happened when I was growing up in Brown County. The stories offered here were told to my five daughters around campfires and at many bedtime sessions as they were growing up. They requested that I tell them over and over again. They heard these stories, and many others like them, so many times they said they felt like they actually grew up with Cobweb, and Virgil, and Hazel, and Sis, and Bobby, and Stretch. After many retellings I was once obliged to let my youngest daughter know that I had told her everything I could remember, or even make up. To which she replied, "OK then, just start over." The various accounts of these uncommon experiences were reinforced for my daughters when they visited their grandmother who lived in Nashville, the County Seat of Brown County, and were able to explore the territory where they took place. All of these stories are based on things that actually happened to me and other live people in the good old days in Brown County. They are as true as creative memory will allow. Babaha na naman ang mga flyers, ang mga pader matatakpan ng mga posters, pero handa na ba ang mga voters? Parang langis at tubig ba ang faith at politics---Hindi pwedeng mag-mix? Kung gusto mong makakita ng seryosong pagbabago, wag mong sayangin ang boto sa maling kandidato. Para maparinig ang boses mo, di kailangang maki-rally sa EDSA at Mendiola. Why? Dahil pwede mong gawin yan sa pamamagitan ng iyong balota. Akala ng iba na ang future ng Pilipinas ay nasa mga kamay ng mga kandidato. Ang totoo niyan, ito ay nasa kamay mo.

Lost Face - Jack London 1910
Lost Face is a collection of seven short stories by Jack London. It takes its name from the first short story in the book, about a European adventurer in the Yukon who outwits his Indian captors' plans to torture him. This collection includes London's best-known short story, To Build a Fire. It tells the story of a new traveler in the Klondike who ignores warnings about traveling alone and whose life depends on the ability to build a fire.

Tales from the 7,000 Isles - Dianne de Las Casas 2011-09-22
Celebrate the unique diversity and vibrancy of the Philippines through an in-depth exploration of the stories, traditions, songs, crafts, and recipes of the many different regions of the country. Tales from the 7,000 Isles: Filipino Folk Stories offers insights into the people and culture of the Philippines through dozens of tales representing the nation's various islands, regions, and cultural-ethnic groups. Designed to provide educators with material with which to enhance curriculum and lesson plans, the stories open a gateway to a rich and unique cultural mix. The tales presented here are divided into animal stories, how and why stories, tales of enchantment, trickster tales, and scary stories. In them readers can discern not only the native Filipino culture, but the influences of the many peoples who have moved through and settled in the islands, most notably Malay, Chinese, and Spanish, but also Arab, Indian, and American. A brief history of the country, its people, and their cultural traditions is included, as are crafts, children's games, recipes, and color photos. Notes about the stories, a bibliography, and a glossary complete the volume.

He is passionate about what he believes in. He moves heaven and earth, so to speak, to convince you of his belief, of his position, of his arguments—giving emphasis to the showing of evidence cum the force of deductive and syllogistic reasoning. He rarely raises his voice in anger to convince you; he listens to your arguments. However, in the end, if you remain unconvinced, still he respects you and your opinion. His being passionate is evident in his writings. Also, when he starts writing, you can expect him to finish the article/book within his scheduled timetable.

On the bank of the Godavari River is a kingdom called the Abiding Kingdom. There lived the son of King Victory, the famous King Triple-victory, mighty as the king of the gods. As this king sat in judgment, a monk called Patience brought him every day one piece of fruit as an expression of homage. And the king took it and gave it each day to the treasurer who stood near. Thus twelve years passed. Now one day the monk came to court, gave the king a piece of fruit as usual, and went away. But on this day the king gave the fruit to a pet baby monkey that had escaped from his keepers, and happened to wander in. And as the monkey ate the fruit, he split it open, and a priceless, magnificent gem came out. When the king saw this, he took it and asked the treasurer: "Where have you been keeping the fruits which the monk brought? I gave them to you." When the treasurer heard this, he was frightened and said: "Your Majesty, I have thrown them all through the window. If your Majesty desires, I will look for them now." And when the king had dismissed him, he went, but returned in a moment, and said again: "Your Majesty, they were all smashed in the treasury, and in them I see heaps of dazzling gems."

Each issue is an anthology of Kathryn's different stories including historical romance, time travel romance, and sweet wholesome contemporary. Most issues contain stories from her different series, but some issues have standalone stories not part of a series. In this issue: SHORT STORIES... Silver Linings Ninety silver foil balloons. Ten party hats and ten party blowers. But no one at the party but Maribelle and her ninety-year-old grandmother. The self-quarantine order happened quickly, sending everyone isolating in their homes. After retiring from the Air Force, Lucas needed a break. Some time to himself. Little did he know that the world had completely changed during the four weeks he avoided any semblance of civilization. When Lucas found Maribelle and her grandmother isolating in a cabin in the woods, he wanted to catch up on more than just a world turned upside down. A heartwarming short story set during America's fight with COVID 19. On a Snowy Winter Morning Natalie Worthington loved the magic of snowy mornings. The quiet peacefulness. But beneath the peacefulness lay a deadly danger. Natalie's world flipped upside down, leaving her responsible for not only her own survival, but the survival of her little brother. When their home is invaded, and Natalie's life on the line, will she survive? A heartwarming and suspenseful American historical short story. Louisiana Time Whispers Lilah Woodward spent her days working in hospitality with senior citizens. Enchanted by the magic of the Mississippi River, she does something few people in her position would do. Would a simple act of kindness change her destiny? A Rainy Wednesday Morning A rainy Wednesday morning. Just like any other morning. In the rain. Except that it wasn't. Emily's life turned upside down in the blink of an eye. A chance encounter in a coffee shop folds away the years. An Errant Yankee While on a supply run to town, southerner Alisa and her cat Muffin find a Yankee soldier treed by their dog. The injured soldier posed no danger, but Muffin wove a safety spell around them anyway. The man needed shelter. Rescuing an errant Yankee proved to be more than Alisa could have predicted... A charming short story in the Civil War Southern Belle historical romance series with unexpected compelling characters. NOVEL... Just Chance Tara Rodgers reinvented herself. She moved to Dallas. Enrolled in college classes. Broke up with her boyfriend. On her way to a new career. A shiny new life. Jonathan Cooper slowly adjusted to Dallas life. Especially the heat. He struggled to adapt to life in Texas. But flying for the famed Skye

Travels made the sacrifice worthwhile. When Tara and Jonathan experience a life-altering event together, each find the course of their lives changing.. A heartwarming and intensely engaging standalone novel in Kathryn Kaleigh's Cupid's Kiss sweet wholesome romance series.
